The Anacortes Schools Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization whose vision is to promote student achievement. The foundation was formed in 1984 with one of its purposes to grant scholarships and awards to students and graduates of the Anacortes School District. Scholarships are made possible by endowments and gifts made to the Foundation.

Recipients of scholarships from the Foundation are encouraged to contribute to the fund when they became financially capable so that others may also receive benefits to continue their education.
